Guidance - Credit Unions and Caisses Populaires

The Financial Services Regulatory Authority of Ontario (FSRA) is responsible for supervising and regulating a broad range of financial service sectors. FSRA issues guidance to make it easier for the public, new entrants and incumbents to understand what is legally binding, what is FSRA's interpretation or application of law and what information is designed to be helpful. All guidance is issued in accordance with FSRA's Guidance Framework.

The following table lists Active guidance. Use the filters to search the table or enter text in the search field. Please reach out to our contact centre if you require assistance.

Note:

- To find inactive guidance select “inactive from the “Status” filter.
- For information on inactive / Inherited guidance, follow this link Inherited Guidance
